

Building Community -- One Book, One Cup, One Note At A Time.

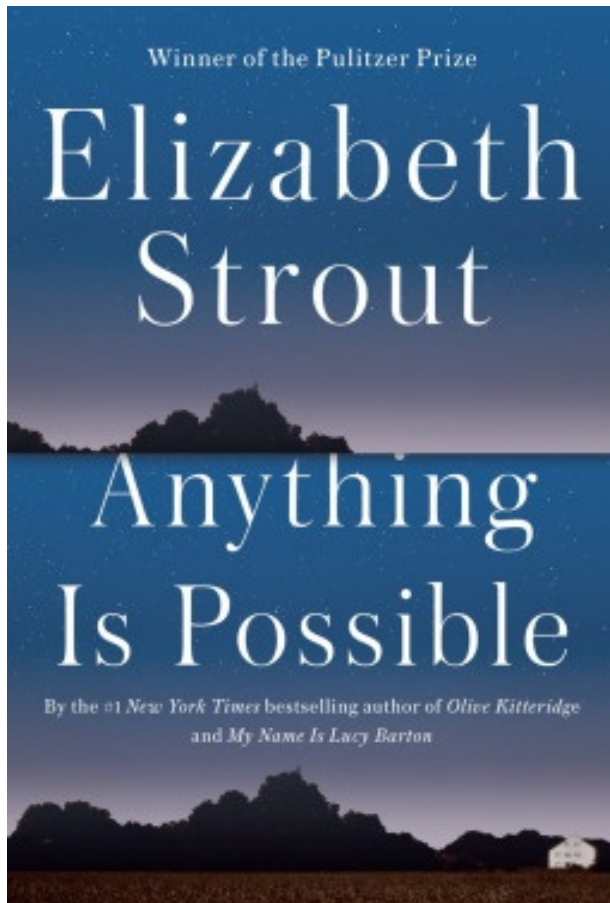

Greetings, Buono Buzzards!

We Exceeded Our Goal!

THANK YOU for supporting our Couth Buzzard community! With your generous help, we were able to meet our fundraising goal (and then some). For those who donated, your store credit has been entered into our computer system and can be used at any time. If you chose any other rewards, please visit this page for information about how to claim them. All of us at the Buzzard are so grateful for your support and your concern, and we'd like to give back to you. Watch your inbox for more information about COUTH BUZZARD COMMUNITY DAY (April 29th) later this month!

Anything is Possible by Elizabeth Strout

Short story collection Anything Is Possible explores the whole range of human emotion through the intimate dramas of people struggling to understand themselves and others.

Here are two sisters: one trades self-respect for a wealthy husband while the other finds in the pages of a book a kindred spirit who changes her life. The janitor at the local school has his faith tested in an encounter with an isolated man he has come to help; a grown daughter longs for mother love even as she comes to accept her mother's happiness in a foreign country; and the adult Lucy Barton (the heroine of My Name Is Lucy Barton) returns to visit her siblings after seventeen years of absence.

”Monsters”: Book Release with Author Raphaela Weissman

Sunday, April 8th at 6:00pm

Local author Raphaela Weissman wrote this, her first novel, largely in classes at Hugo House. Monsters is the story of a family falling apart as they struggle to care for each other under the weight of fear. It’s a chilling, harrowing, intimate portrait of a dysfunctional family in Brooklyn shortly after 9/11.

Free. Copies of Book Available In-Store.

PNW Folklore Society Concert: Heidi Muller and Bob Webb

Friday, April 13th at 7:30pm

Heidi Muller, an award-winning songwriter, singer, guitarist and mountain dulcimer player has played in concert halls, festivals, and living rooms throughout America, and produced eight CDs establishing her firmly in the national folk community. She tours both as a solo artist and with her partner, Bob Webb, a talented accompanist on guitar, mandolin, dulcimer and cello, and former member of the original Mountain Stage house band. Heidi and Bob cross the musical boundaries between original songs and traditional tunes, blending each other’s influences from the Pacific Northwest to the Appalachian Mountains.

$10 Donation.

Kesselgarten Klezmer Duo

Saturday, April 14th at 7:30pm

Join us for a joyful evening of Klezmer music from Poland, Ukraine, Romania and Moldova -- as performed by Carl Shutoff (clarinet in C) and Laurie Andres (accordion).
